

Terms and Conditions for Participants of Swiss Testing Day

1. General

The following general terms and conditions shall be applicable to all events that are part of the Swiss Testing Day. With completion of the registration form on the Swiss Testing Day website, attendees of the Swiss Testing Day acknowledge and accept the content of these terms and conditions. Any general terms and conditions of the participant that deviate from our general terms and conditions shall be invalid.

2. Type and Scope of Conference Services

The Swiss Testing Day shall be open to all interested persons. The type and scope of the conference are described in the information brochure and on the corresponding website. The organizer of the event reserves the right to make changes to the programme in urgent cases.

3. Rates and Terms of Payment

The purchase of a ticket is legally binding. The rates for participation include 8.0% VAT. The registration fee is payable without deductions in Swiss francs to the organizer within 30 days after purchase.

4. Cancellation

Registration for the Swiss Testing Day can be cancelled at any time. The notice of cancellation has to be issued in writing and is valid only after receipt of a confirmation of cancellation. All cancellations received prior to one month before the start of the event where registration fees have already been paid shall be refunded minus the cancellation fee from Amiando. For cancellations made up to two weeks prior to the start of the event, administrative charges of 50% of the registration fee invoiced shall be charged. Thereafter, the full amount shall be charged, even in case of non attendance. The organizer can be notified in writing (email, fax, letter), at no charge, up to 1 week before the start of the conference if a substitute participant will attend the event.

5. Change of Date or Cancellation of the Swiss Testing Day and Tutorials by the Organizer

We reserve the right to cancel Swiss Testing Day or to change the date or location and ask for your understanding in this matter. Should any of the above situations occur, we shall make every effort to notify you of cancellations or necessary changes as early as possible. In case of cancellation of the conference, we shall promptly refund any registration fee payments already made. Additional claims shall not be admitted.

6. Intellectual Property Rights and Rights to Work Results

The organizer remains the owner of the intellectual and industrial property rights existing at the time the order is placed. No part of the documents and other media created by the organizer prior to or during order processing may be reproduced, processed, duplicated, disseminated, or shown in public without the consent of the organizer. If documents or other media are used in the processing of the order to which third parties have rights, these rights remain with the respective originator. The rights to all the results produced by the organizer as part of an event belong to the organizer. However, the organizer grants the client the non-exclusive, non-transferable right to use the results produced in a way that is appropriate to the event and agreed upon in the context of the event. This shall apply as long as the work results are not specifically designated documents or other documents or media created by the organizer. For such documents and media, the intellectual and industrial property rights shall apply with no restrictions, unless other agreements are made in writing.

7. Place of Jurisdiction

The applicable law shall be Swiss law. The place of jurisdiction is Zurich.
